"I TRY TO REDISCOVER
WHAT NEVER EXISTED"

Cor D. Rover is a Dutch design studio specializing in styling large motor yachts.

Together with my team I search for new ways to give every yacht the exclusive appearance that satisfies the wishes of my clients. With lines that are unique but recognizable, not exaggerated but surprising. Lines that are beautiful today and will be tomorrow. In other words, reflections of your intentions.

In our vision you can only achieve these results with a strong interaction between client and designer.

It's a search for timeless beauty. We have done it once again together with Fincantieri Yachts, shaping a new, "crystalline" concept.
